TO SET WALLER FREE.

Our Government Will Make a Formal Demand on France.

WILL ALSO CLAIM INDEMNITY.

The Dilatory Tactics of French Government Officials Taken as an Evidence of the Weakness of the Case on Which Our Ex-Consul Was Imprisoned.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 22.—There is good authority for the statement that a good peremptory demand will be made by the United States on France for the release of ex-Consul John Waller, of Tamatave, and that satisfactory indemnity will be required for the arrest and imprisonment, with a probable request for a commission to determine Waller's rights in Madagascar. The discussion of the case between the French and American diplomats has reached a point where it is said that there is little else for the United States to do, owing to the fact that repeated requests for a copy of the charges and testimony upon which Waller was convicted have not been furnished by the French government.

It was said at the state department today that the delay in the Waller case had been very annoying to the officials, and especially to Ambassador Eustis. The dilatory action of France in this matter is regarded as indicating that the French government has a very poor case, and will be unable to resist the demands made by the United States for the restoration of Waller to liberty and indemnity for his losses. A condition which makes the delay of France more aggravating is the fact that the department is aware of the serious illness of Waller in prison, and that his further confinement is harmful to his health.

International questions generally move slowly, but the delay in producing papers and testimony in the case of Waller has been of a very exasperating kind, and has resulted in sharp pressure by United States officials to bring about a settlement, the belief being that a great deal of the delay has been largely unnecessary. Some of the reports which have been received at the department indicate that the treatment of Waller has been unjust, and his arrest and trial a breach of international comity.

A Prominent Inventor Killed.

NORTHAMPTON, Mass., Aug. 22.—Joseph Kneeland, a well known inventor, was struck by a passenger train and almost instantly killed while attempting to cross the tracks of the Boston and Maine at this place. Mr. Kneeland was formerly a prominent printer at Troy, N. Y., and had lived in Northampton about thirty years. He is the inventor of a number of valuable machines used in the manufacture of paper, and on his inventions he held many patents.

THE PROPOSED PACIFIC CABLE.

Hawaii's Congress Indorses the Subsidy Asked for Its Construction.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug 22.—The steamer Australia has just arrived with advices from Honolulu to Aug. 14. The senate and house have ratified the cable contract made by President Dole with Z. S Spaulding, who will ask the next congress for an annual subsidy of $251,000.

The contract signed by this government grants an exclusive franchise for twenty years, but provides that the grant shall not prevent any foreign government having existing treaty rights with the republic of Hawaii allowing any such government so to do to land a cable upon the Hawaiian group for other than commercial purposes, from any point on the North American continent. The government agrees to pay the contractor an annual subsidy of $10,000 for twenty years from the date of the establishment of the telegraphic communication between Honolulu and a point at or near San Francisco, and the islands of Hawaii, Moloki, Maui and Kauai.

Work on the cable must begin on or before May 1, 1897, and the line must be completed by Nov. 1, 1898, otherwise the contract is void. If Spaulding fails to obtain assistance from the United States the Hawaiian government may cancel its contract. The company will be exempt from duty on material, taxes and port charges in addition to other privileges. The maximum rates for messages shall be $1 per word.

The Hawaiian government has received a communication from the British government acknowledging that the military court which tried those participating in the January uprising was legally established. The British foreign office concedes that every prisoner with the exception of V. V. Ashford had a fair and impartial trial. Ashford was recently pardoned and exiled. He is now in California.

Victorious Philadelphia Weavers.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 22.—The strike of the ingrain carpet weavers ended today, when all but two of the employing firms signed the schedule for an increase in wages of 7 per cent. This was the outcome of a meeting of employers at the Manufacturers' club last night, and is said to have been induced by the action of John Gay's Sons, one of the largest firms, employing about 300 hands, in promising to sign the schedule, after having maintained a vigorous stand against the strikers up to this time. In some mills the increased rate will go into effect this week, but it will not be generally adopted until Sept. 16, the date fixed by the weavers in their recent ultimatum.

Miner Blake's Rich Find.

VANCE JUNCTION, Colo., Aug. 22.—Mining men are becoming greatly excited over discoveries made by James Blake about five or six miles below this place. It is a contact which can be traced fully five miles in an easterly direction, and carries mineral value, according to assay returns, of from $50 to $200 per ton. Already hundreds of prospectors are on the ground, and all are of the opinion that it is one of the richest discoveries ever made in this part of the country.

"Parson" Davies Acquitted.

NEW YORK, Aug. 22.—Magistrate Kudlich, in the Yorkville police court, after a hearing lasting two hours, concluded to discharge "Parson" Davies, Joseph Gordon and Tom O'Rourke. He reserved until Sept. 4 his decision in the cases of George Dixon and Mike Leonard, the principals. The five men were arrested Monday night while participating in a sparring exhibition at the Academy of Music.

CAMPBELL THE NOMINEE.

Named to Oppose Bushnell for Governor of Ohio.

SPRINGFIELD, O., Aug. 22.—The Democratic state convention here made all its nominations without opposition. The convention was in session from 10:20 till 2:40, and the nominations were completed in a half hour after ex Governor Campbell had been drafted for the standard bearer. The ballots were all on the minority report, on credentials and resolutions, and the time was thus consumed in the contests between the gold and silver men.

The gold men, headed by Senator Brice, had claimed that there would be less than 300, and probably not many more than 200 of the 808 delegates vote for free silver. The silver men claimed they would have no less than 500, and probably 550 delegates. It developed that there were 279 free silver delegates. It was a fighting minority, but it did not carry the fight further than on the platform. The nominee for member of the board of public works is said to be the only free silver man on the state ticket, although the silver lines were not drawn on the candidates.

There was considerable enthusiasm over the nomination of Campbell. He defeated ex-Governor Foraker in 1889, and was defeated for re-election as governor in 1891 by William McKinley, Jr., the present incumbent. The nomination of Campbell means an aggressive campaign in Ohio, where McKinley is now recognized as a candidate for president and Foraker for senator, the fate of both depending largely upon the pending contest between Campbell and Bushnell for governor. It is generally understood that Governor Campbell was induced to make the race by promises of support for the presidential nomination in the event of his success next November, in which contingency he again confronts his old opponent, McKinley, should the latter be nominated. And in co-operating with Senator Brice for a Democratic legislature ex-Governor Campbell is also again confronting his other old opponent—Foraker. It is thought that the contest between these old leaders in Ohio will overshadow the currency question and other issues.

The full ticket is as follows: For governor, James E Campbell; lieutenant governor, John B. Peaslee; state auditor, James W. Knott; state treasurer, William T. Mooney; supreme judge, William T. Mooney; attorney general, George A. Fairbanks; member board of public works, Harry B. Keefer; clerk of supreme court, J. W. Cruikshank.

Popular Preacher Killed by Cars.

NEW YORK, Aug. 22.—Two tramps walking on the West Shore railroad between Little Ferry and Granton found a man beside the track who was apparently fatally injured. The man was brought here, where he was identified as the Rev. George Hebbard, of this city. He died while being removed to a hospital. Mr. Hebbard was pastor of St. Luke's church, in Hudson street, up to July last. He lived at the rectory with his family until July 15, when he took his family, which consists of his wife and three children, to Craigsmore, near Ellenville, N. Y. He was to have begun his work at St. Stephen's church, this city, as assistant pastor, Sept. 1 next. It is not known whether he was walking on the track and was struck by a passing train or whether he fell from a passenger train.

Norristown Glass Works May Resume.

NORRISTOWN, Pa., Aug 22.—It is currently rumored that the Norristown Glass works will resume operations early in September. The rumor is given color by the fact that a representative of the company is calling on a number of the former employes and asking them if they had secured employment for the coming glass season. A member of the company, when asked as to the accuracy of the rumor, said nothing definite with regard to resumption would be decided on until after the wage question is settled. The factory has been idle since April, 1894.

A LYNCHING IN OHIO.

Brutal Murder of a Venerable New Richmond Banker.

THE CRIME SPEEDILY AVENGED.

The Frenzied Friends of the Dead Banker Tear the Murderer from the Hands of Officers and Hang Him to a Tree—No Attempt at Concealment.

CINCINNATI, Aug. 22.—At New Richmond, O., twenty five miles up the Ohio river from Cincinnati, late yesterday afternoon a mob took Noah Anderson, colored, from jail and hanged him for the murder yesterday of Franklin Fridman, nearly 80 years old, and president of the First National bank of that place.

Mr. Fridman was among the wealthiest men in Clermont county. He owned a number of farms and lived at Clermontville, about two miles from New Richmond. He was driving into New Richmond shortly after noon, when he stopped at one of his houses. Hitching his horse at the dooryard he went into an adjoining field, where he was attacked by Noah Anderson, a muscular negro, who had no weapon but his hands. With these he quickly bore the banker to earth and then, clutching his throat with the power of a demon, he literally choked his victim to death. When satisfied that the man was dead Anderson fled. Soon the prostrate man was borne to the house and found to be past all help.

The news of the murder spread swiftly. Everybody knew Mr. Fridman, and it was not long until Anderson was captured and taken to the New Richmond jail, where a great crowd quickly gathered. Anderson made no attempt to conceal his crime. He gloatingly told all the details and said he had given the old man what he deserved. It is said that Anderson was not right in his mind, and that one of his hallucinations was that Fridman had deprived him of a large sum of money. The truth is the two men had had no dealings together, as Anderson came to New Richmond on a shanty boat only a few months ago, and claimed to be a paperhanger.

The crowd about the jail soon became wildly excited. As the negro's confession became known cries of "Lynch him!" "Hang the coward!" arose. A rope was brought and the end seemed near. Prominent citizens addressed the mob, imploring moderation. Anderson was in his cell on his knees, crying for mercy. The marshal, when a momentary lull came, attempted to take Anderson to a more secure jail at Batavia, the county seat. No sooner did the man appear outside the jail than the frenzied mob rushed at the marshal and, seizing the prisoner, bore him quickly to the nearest tree, and in a brief time he was dead.

There was no masking, no attempt at concealment. Every person present and engaged in the mob knew all the others. It was simply an act of frenzy under most aggravating circumstances. The murdered man was endeared to every citizen, and his taking off was so sudden that his friends and neighbors seemed to have lost their reason.

Twenty-one Bodies Recovered.

DENVER, Aug. 22.—Including the bodies of General Charles Adams and Peter Gumry, twenty-one bodies have been taken from the wreck of the Gumry hotel. The latest remains to be taken out are almost unrecognizable. A fire was started yesterday to destroy the threatening walls. No other way was seemingly practicable. One of the other bodies is believed to be the remains of A. S. Blake, of Pueblo, and the last may be the body of William Decker, a bell boy, or W. J. Corson, of Pueblo. Friends of W. J. Blake, of Florence Colo., are convinced that he was also in the Gumry when the explosion occurred. Coroner Martin is still of the opinion there are many more bodies in the ruins.

Salvationists to Invade Japan.

OAKLAND, Cal., Aug. 22.—George S. Montgomery, a millionaire member of the Salvation Army, is organizing an expedition to invade Japan and Christianize the inhabitants. His plan has received the approval of General Booth, who will send a few recruits from London, and the party will sail in about a month. The party will be under the command of a native Japanese lieutenant, who became converted and joined the army in this city.

Glass Workers Fail to Agree.

PITTSBURG, Aug 22.—The wage committees of the window glass manufacturers and workers failed to agree, and adjourned without date. The significance of this failure is not yet fully known. There is only a difference of about 2½ per cent. between the demands of the manufacturers and workers, and this may be compromised later. Another solution may be found in individual settlements of the firms with their employes.

The Kucheng Investigation.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 22.—Acting Secretary Adee has been in constant communication with Minister Denby regarding the investigation of the riots at Kucheng, and he feels assured that everything possible is being done by our representatives to secure a complete report of all the facts. It is believed the American and British officials will be admitted to the investigations without further delay.

Two Killed in a Family Feud.

WHITESBURG, Ky., Aug. 22.—Will Gilbert and James Gwens, brothers-in-law, were killed in a hand to hand battle at the village of Keystone, in Mingo county, W. Va., near the Kentucky line, by John Strauss. The encounter was the result of a family feud, which had its origin ten years or more ago.

Chicago's Coliseum Collapses.

CHICAGO, Aug. 22.—The great Coliseum on the South Side, which was nearly completed, and was to have been opened for business on Sept. 2, partly collapsed just before midnight. There were very few workmen and watchmen around, and it is not thought any of these were fatally hurt.

ANOTHER TRAIN ROBBERY.

An Express Train on the Union Pacific Held Up by Three Men.

GOTHENBURG, Neb., Aug. 22.—The eastbound overland fast express No. 8 on the Union Pacific railroad was held up just after midnight at Buttermilk Hill, about two miles this side of Brady Island.

There were three men visible, according to the story told by Conductor Flynn. Two of the gang got on the train at Brady Island, going forward over the tender after the train was in motion, and with revolvers drawn held up the fireman and engineer, and compelled the engineer at the muzzles of revolvers to go back to the baggage car and inform the baggageman that they were held up, and that the robbers had a gun at his head and demanded admittance. They were admitted at once and the expressman was compelled to open the smaller safe. He could not open the larger combination safe, and the robbers proceeded to blow it open with dynamite.

In the meantime the fireman managed to give the robbers the slip, and, going forward, he uncoupled the engine and made the run to Gothenburg for a posse of men to help capture the gang. In a short time twenty volunteers were on the way to the scene of the robbery, but before they arrived the robbers had disappeared.

Express Messenger Thomas McCarl says the robbers did not get over $100 for their trouble. They sacked the way safe, but failed to get inside the large safe, which contained the most valuable packages.

A STATE COMMITTEE MEETING.

Pennsylvania Republican Leaders Indorse Senator Quay's Request.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 22.—A letter containing the signatures of several prominent Republican politicians was forwarded to Chairman Gilkeson, asking him to call a meeting of the Republican state committee to make up the lists of delegates for next Wednesday's convention, a similar request to that recently made by Senator Quay. The signers are Lieutenant Governor Walter Lyon, Auditor General Mylin, Secretary of Internal Affairs Latta and Theodore L. Flood, permanent chairman of the Republican convention of 1894, all of whom were active in selecting Mr. Gilkeson for the chairmanship.

The result of the primary elections on Tuesday night are substantially as published yesterday. The delegates to the state convention were chosen yesterday, and according to the anti-Quay people the result is: For Hastings, 48; for Quay, 14; doubtful, 3; contested, 5. The latest Quay estimate claims 17 sure for the senator, 1 probable, 5 contested and 2 pledged.

An International Squabble.

ST. JOHNS, N. F., Aug. 22.—The newspapers announce that the French admiral commanding the French squadron for fishery protection along the New Foundland coast is waiting at Bay of Islands to protest against the new trans-Insular railroad, now in course of construction, piercing the country and touching any part of the so called French shore where French fishing claims exist. The British authorities apprehend prompt and decisive action on the part of the French. It is feared that the question will lead to very important international trouble. The British flag-ship Cleopatra is lying in the same waters.

Promised Reforms in Turkey.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Aug. 22.—It is stated here that the sultan has decided to issue a decree on Aug. 31 announcing general reforms throughout the empire. The tendency of this reply to the powers, however, is more retrograde than progressive, as, for instance, Christians are not admitted to be eligible to hold the post of vali, in spite of the fact that Christian valis have existed for years past.

SPANISH VICTORIES

Reported from Spanish Official Sources.

REVOLUTIONARY LEADERS KILLED

Twenty-five Thousand Fresh Troops to be Sent Against the Insurgents in November—Cubans Not Yet Ready to Demand Recognition.

HAVANA, Aug 22.—According to Spanish official advices Major Aunibal, at the head of eighty-seven infantry and twenty-four cavalrymen belonging to the Camajuani squadron, was recently attacked at Llano by the vanguard, consisting of twenty men, of an insurgent force. The vanguard was commanded by Captain Gonzalez and the main body of the insurgents, amounting to about 100 men, was commanded by Manuel Napoles, who occupied strong positions. Major Anibal repulsed the vanguard and killed Gonzalez. He then attacked the main body, captured their positions and dispersed the insurgents, who left nine men killed and seventeen saddled horses. The troops also captured six rifles, a small number of machetes and a quantity of ammunition. On the side of the Spanish troops three men were wounded.

Information received by the Spanish authorities from the insurgent camp confirm the report that the insurgents, in the engagement fought at Rojas, lost sixteen killed and had twenty wounded.

It is officially reported that the battalion of Alfonso XIII and the volunteer squadron of the business men of Havana have fought a band of insurgents in Naranjo. The insurgents were dispersed and left two dead.

Colonel Oliver states that the insurgent chief Benigno Rodrigues died from the wounds received, and that in the engagement he seriously wounded the insurgent chief Quintan.

An insurgent band of bravos under Chief Rego attacked a detachment of troops at Barajagua. The report says that the troops made a good defense, and that the insurgents left forty dead and wounded. When they were obliged to retire they set fire to the village.

At Palanka a column of troops had an encounter with the insurgents under Chiefs Roloff and Sanchez. Sixty insurgents were killed and the remainder were pursued to the confines of the province of Puerto Principe.

The insurgent leader Mujica has been shot at Matanzas.

Twenty-five thousand fresh Spanish troops will arrive here in November.

Cuba Not Ready for Recognition.

NEW YORK, Aug. 22.—Spanish residents in this city were considerably worked up today over the report that Thomas Estrada Palma, president of the Cuban revolutionary party in this country, intended to ask the United States government to recognize the recently organized republic of Cuba and to grant belligerent rights to the insurgents. President Palma when seen said that such an announcement was premature, as the provincial government was not yet thoroughly organized and the insurgents were not in possession of a seaboard town. Senor de Traijello, Spanish consul, said that Spain would not give up the fight until the insurrection should be absolutely quelled.

BALTIMORE, Aug 22.—The Populist state convention yesterday made the following nominations: For governor, Henry T. Andrew of Caroline county; attorney general, B. W. Monett of Calvert county; comptroller, S. H. Gibson of Crisfield, Somerset county. B W. Morris, of Wicomico county, was selected as chairman of the state central committee, vice N. A. Dunning, whose withdrawal from the convention rendered the place vacant. The platform indorses the Omaha Populist platform, declares against free silver, in favor of reform in the oyster laws, and of property reassessment.

The Mishap to the Defender.

NEW YORK, Aug. 22.—The mishap to Defender in Tuesday's trial race was more serious than had been thought. A careful examination of the yacht was made after her arrival at Bay Ridge, and it was found that the hound band to which the shrouds are attached had for some reason slipped down the mast, allowing the shrouds to sag three-quarters of an inch. Further than this, under the strain of the heavy breeze the mast had "buckled" about twenty feet below the topmast, which made it unsafe. The yacht was taken to Bristol for repairs.

Austria Seizes a Russian Balloon.

the new shortening, like all other things must be rightly used if you wish the best results. Never, in any recipe, use more than two-thirds as much Cottolene as you used to use of lard. IRELAND'S NEW RULERS.

The Earl of Cadogan, Lord Ashbourne and Another Balfour In Office.

The return to power of Premier Salisbury gives Ireland another regime of Balfourism, for the new chief secretary for Ireland, Gerald Balfour, M. P., is a brother of Mr. Arthur Balfour and will doubtless imitate his brother's famous policy in regard to the Emerald Isle. Balfour is the fourth son of the late J. Maitland Balfour and a nephew of Premier Salisbury. He has been secretary to the premier and to his brother Arthur and is said to be a man of fine intellect and a thoughtful student of politics. He was born in 1853, was educated at Eton and Trinity college, Cambridge, and was married in 1887 to Lady Elizabeth Edith Bulwer Lytton, daughter of "Owen Meredith," the poet, whose "Lucile" proved so popular. Balfour entered the house of commons in 1885 as member for the central division of Leeds and was a member of the royal labor commission in 1891.

George Henry, earl of Cadogan, the new lord lieutenant and general governor of Ireland, is 55 years of age, is the fifth earl of his name and is a man of great wealth. He is the ground owner of Chelsea and receives twice the salary of the president of the United States for inflicting an unpopular government upon Ireland. He was undersecretary for war in 1875-8, undersecretary for the colonies in 1878-80 and lord privy seal in 1886. His political fortunes have risen and fallen with those of Lord Salisbury, whose protege he seems to be.

Another of Premier Salisbury's favorites is Edward Gibson, first Lord Ashbourne, who is lord chancellor of Ireland for the third time under Lord Salisbury. He was born in 1838 and was educated at Trinity college, Dublin. He entered parliament in 1875 as member for Dublin university and in 1877 was made attorney general of Ireland. He went out of office in 1880, but continued to sit in parliament, and during the Liberal regime in 1880-5 was the chief spokesman of the opposition on Irish questions. In 1885 Lord Salisbury raised Gibson to the peerage with the title of Baron Ashbourne.

LONGFELLOW'S QUAINT HOME.

A Facsimile of It Will Be Massachusetts' Building at Atlanta's Fair.

One of the most attractive state buildings at the coming Cotton States and International exposition will be that erected by the state of Massachusetts. It will be as nearly as practicable a reproduction of the old Cragie house in Cambridge, Mass., which was once the headquarters of George Washington, and in later years was the home of the poet Henry W. Longfellow. The house is of quaint old colonial architecture, is the ideal home for a great poet, and no visitor to Boston who pretends to see the sights fails to make a pilgrimage to the picturesque structure.

The building in Atlanta will be exactly the same size as the original and will be painted white and yellow, furnishing one of the best types of colonial architecture that could possibly be secured for the exposition. The interior will be severely plain and no attempt will be made to have it resemble the Longfellow mansion. There will be an upper and lower hall, which will be filled with interesting state exhibits. The valuable historic relics that will be sent to the exposition from Massachusetts will not be on view at the Longfellow house, but will be displayed in a separate fireproof structure. The cost of the Longfellow mansion will be $6,000.

The state's exhibit in the building will consist largely in illustrations of her public institutions and improved methods of administration of the departments of state. The idea is to show the state's progress rather than to make an exhibit merely of antiquities and commercial products. There will be numerous exhibits showing the educational and prison methods in vogue. Among the other states New York will be represented at Atlanta by a $25,000 building that will be a sort of clubhouse for visiting New Yorkers.

Echo of the War.

The official figures published in Japan show that the whole invading force that overwhelmed 400,000,000 Chinese numbered but 60,979 men. Of these only 734 were killed in battle, while but 231 died of wounds. The deaths from disease increased the total deaths to 4,110.

Musk In Fish.

A chemical works on the banks of the Rhone, in the canton of Geneva, is devoted to the manufacture of artificial musk, and it has been found that the fishes, more especially the trout, have a musky savor.

Hoarding Gold.

The Bank of England is still increasing its holdings of gold. It now has $19,000,000 more than it had 12 months ago. The Bank of France has added $57,000,000 to its hoard of gold in the same time.

Police In Russia.

The Russian godovoy (policeman) is usually a very small policeman indeed. He makes up in deportment and dignity what he lacks in size. His countenance bears evidence of unbending severity; he is never seen to smile: he is minute, but majestic; dirty, but dignified.

His dress is a long kaftan, which the ignorant would unhesitatingly pronounce to be a dressing gown. A sword ornaments the left side, while his legs are incased in huge Wellington boots. On his head he wears a small military cap.

The policeman lives in his own little house, about the size of a moderately large dog kennel, one of which is planted at the corner of each principal thoroughfare. Here the little godovoy sleeps and eats his meals and disposes of the spare time upon his hands.—Buffalo Times.

Loved Her Horse.

Clement Scott, the London dramatic critic, says that he was once threatened with a libel suit for saying that a certain actress who caracoled on the stage on a seedy looking, circus bred quadruped "rode a horse with pink eyes." "Abuse me as much as you like," said the fair litigant, "but don't say that my horse has pink eyes."

The Storm Center.

The great lakes and the St. Lawrence valley have more storms per annum than any other portions of this country. This is due to the fact that storms originating west of this district move directly east, while many originating farther south move to the northeast.

Rebecca Wilkinson, of Brownsvalley, Ind., says: "I have been in a distressed condition for three years from nervousness, weakness of the stomach, dyspepsia and indigestion until my health was gone. I had been doctoring constantly with no relief. I bought one bottle of South American Nervine, which did me more good than any $50 worth of doctoring I ever did in my life. I would advise every weakly person to use this valuable and lovely medicine; a few bottles of it have cured me completely. I consider it the grandest medicine in the world." Warranted the most wonderful stomach and nerve cure ever known. Sold by J. E. Mills, Middletown, N. Y.

Gentlemen:—I have used tobacco for over twenty-five years, chewing and smoking every day from 7 a. m. to 9 p. m., stopping only for meals

On Monday, February 4th, I called at your office in Springfield, and bought a bottle of the Cure which I used as directed, and on the tenth day the desire for tobacco had left me and it has not returned. I did not lose a meal while taking the Cure. My appetite has improved and I consider Narcoti-Cure a grand thing.

Very respectfully,

WALL STREET.

If some of the people we are acquainted with had bought Building Lots on Richmond Hill instead of stocks in Wall street, they would have been better off in this world's goods than they are now. There are a number of good things we might say in this connection. Real Estate in the form of Lots in is a particularly desirable investment. No one can "bull" or "bear," the market. The principal is always safe at any rate.

THIS STOCK IN BUILDING LOTS

simply keeps on increasing in value with each house that is erected. There are no "puts" or "calls." All the "margin" you "put up" is your little monthly payment. No "bucket shop" business, the water mains are close by. No one can steal them. They don't eat anything, and at the end of the year you find yourself in Possession of Property Worth Two or Three Times what You Agreed to Pay for It and you have not risked the principal. Yet a fellow had the colossal gall and the monumental cheek to offer us some "Cordag" the other day in trade for one of them. Of course we declined. We have just stated the reason. We have heard a disposition among certain parties to refuse Bank Notes in payment of claims; we wish it understood that all kinds of money in common use will be received for payment on Richmond Hill Lots

A BAD MAN IN NORWICH.

Smashes His Father's Furniture and Shoots an Officer and Himself.

Wesley Adams, thirty-five years of age, who bears a most unsavory reputation, went to the home of his father, Dr. Adams, in Norwich, Tuesday afternoon, and being very drunk began smashing the furniture. Officers were summoned and in order to escape arrest Adams drew a revolver and fired twice at Officer Weslar. One shot took effect in the officer's right arm, inflicting a painful wound and the other in young Adams's hand. With the help of another officer Adams was taken into custody and locked up.

A Great Success.

There are many remarkable successes on the road this season, but none exceed the popularity enjoyed by the latest New York success, "A Midnight Frolic." Press and public accord it an ovation wherever presented. The scenic effects are superb, the story an intense and interesting one, unlike the many unreasonable and unnatural plays with which the public are surfeited. It is full of hearty laughter, bright and catchy music, the most sensational climaxes. The company is one of the strongest on the road.

For Over Fifty Years.

"THE GIRL I LEFT BEHIND ME."

The Attraction With Which the Casino Season Will Open.

"The Girl I Left Behind Me" seems to have the power of delighting all classes of society. Perhaps the judicious mingling of social incident, the flirting and fun that are sure to happen when soldiers and pretty girls are thrown together, and the exciting war scenes explain this success with different classes. But even without its pretty girls and the brilliant ball at Camp Kennion, there is enough fire and stir in the tremendous stockade scene to fill any audience with enthusiasm no matter whether it is a purely fashionable one or not. At the Casino, Monday evening, Aug. 26th.

Shipwrecked Seamen Arrive.

NEW YORK, Aug. 22.—The steamer Dorian, yesterday arrived from Kingston, Jamaica, brought as passengers Captain McGillivray and twenty-four distressed seaman, being the crew of the British steamer Argonaut, abandoned at sea Aug. 6 off the Jamaica coast. The Argonaut sailed from Halifax on July 29 for Port Morant, Jamaica, with a cargo consisting principally of fish and lumber. On Aug. 6 the vessel sprung a leak. So rapidly did the hold fill that the crew had to take to boats inside of half an hour. They saved nothing but the clothes they stood in. Captain McGillivray and his companions landed safely at Holland Bay on the 7th. The Argonaut went down shortly after being abandoned.

Defending the Southern Negro.

BUFFALO, Aug. 22. — Representative Howard, of Alabama, while delivering a lecture at Crystal Beach last night, touched on the negro question in the south. He said: "The white men of the south are themselves responsible for the so-called negro outrages, for which they lynch their fellow men. They have first stolen the negro's vote, they then have stolen the virtue of his wife, his mother and his daughter. When the negro sees these things what can you expect of him but that he will lose all respect for human virtue."

Dirt Worth Fifty Dollars a Yard.

LANDERS, Wyo., Aug. 22.—A wonderfully rich placer find is reported on Gold Creek, on the Continental divide at the south end of Wind River range. The dirt runs $50 to the yard. It is not a gravel bed, and experts say the gold comes from some lead back towards the mountains. The miners are fairly tumbling over each other in their efforts to discover the source of the gold.

The Hawaiian Republic Secure.

CHICAGO, Aug. 22.—W R Castle, the new minister from the republic of Hawaii to the United States arrived in Chicago yesterday, and will leave for Washington tomorrow. The Chinese Exodus.

MONTREAL, Aug. 22.—The flow of Chinamen homeward still continues, no less than 200 pieces of baggage being stacked up at the Canadian Pacific depot. On Tuesday 165 Celestials left Montreal for Vancouver, and they were followed yesterday by 200 more of their companions. Both of these contingents are from different parts of the United States. Today 150 more went through from Boston and New York. All these Chinamen have passports to return to the United States within six months.

Does It Pay to be Sick?

Besides the discomfort and suffering, illness of any sort is expensive. Hundreds of people consult the doctors every day about coughs and colds. This is better than to suffer the disease to run along, but those who use Otto's Cure for the throat and lungs do better still. It costs less and the cure is certain. You can get a trial bottle free of our agent, John J. Chambers, 21 West Main street, Middletown. 3

Diarrhœa should be stopped promptly. It soon becomes chronic. DeWitt's Colic & Cholera Cure is effective, safe and certain. Hundreds of testimonials bear witness to the virtue of this great medicine. It can always be depended upon; its use saves time and money. W. D. Olney.

A Baby's Life Saved.

ADDISON, N. Y., April 8, 1894.—Hand Medicine Co.:—"I feel it my duty to write you in regard to my little daughter's sickness from teething and indigestion. She is seven months old. Two of the best physicians gave her up. One bottle of Dr. Hand's Teething Lotion relieved her so much that we tried Dr. Hand's Colic Cure also, and at once saw a change for the better. These remedies saved my baby's life.—Mrs. Wellington Brown." Dr. Hand's Colic Cure and Dr. Hand's Teething Lotion sold by all druggists, 25c.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria.
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria.
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

Mr. A. A. Snyder, Supt. Poor Farm, Winneshiek Co., says:—Last winter Mr. Robert Leach used two boxes of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve and cured a large running sore on his leg. Had been under care of physicians for months without obtaining relief. W. D. Olney.

THURSDAY, AUGUST 22, 1895.

Republican "reform" in New York city has resulted in the highest tax rate for city purposes that has been known in years, and this in spite of the fact that Col. Waring's extra $600,000 for street cleaning and other items amounting to several hundred thousand dollars have been thrown over into next year. Republican rule and increased taxation follow each other as naturally and inevitably as night follows day.

Although Senator Coggeshall has many friends among Oneida county Democrats there is no reason to fear that the Democratic party of that county will be guilty of the supreme idiocy of naming him as their candidate for the Senate. The division in the Republican ranks caused by the machine's shabby treatment of Coggeshall and his bolt gives Oneida county Democrats an opportunity such as they have not had in years and they propose to make the most of it.

There was wintry weather at Mount Washington, yesterday. The thermometer fell to 28° and a snow storm prevailed during the afternoon. A party of three men and two women who left the Crawford House in the morning to walk to the summit was caught in the storm and came near perishing. A relief party was sent out which assisted them to reach the hotel. One of the women was almost exhausted by exertion and exposure and was in such a precarious condition that she would soon have perished had not the rescuing party reached them.

The Ohio Democratic convention, yesterday, by the decisive vote of 625 to 270, declared in favor of gold and silver as the standard money of the country with "the dollar unit of coinage of both metals of equal intrinsic and exchangeable value or adjusted by international agreement or by such safe legislation as will insure the parity of the two metals at all times in the payment of debts." The platform also demands that the paper currency shall be kept at par with and redeemable in coin. In spite of repeated refusals to accept the nomination ex-Gov. Campbell was nominated for Governor by acclamation and at last, saying that a good soldier should neither falter nor fail, yielded to the demand of the convention and accepted the nomination. The ticket nominated is strong and popular and the Democrats enter on the campaign full of enthusiasm and confident of victory.

In the New York Special Sessions, yesterday, over fifty milk dealers were arraigned charged with selling skimmed, watered and adulterated milk. In these milk cases it has been the custom for the accused to plead guilty and for the Justices to impose fines, which the prisoners paid as a matter of course, going back to their places of business to put more water in the milk they sold till they could even up on the amount of the fine. Yesterday, the Justices took a new tack. A wholesale dealer, Nathan Chasalasky, who pleaded guilty, was sentenced to pay a fine of $100 and serve thirty days in the penitentiary. Fines were imposed on a few small dealers, but sentence was deferred in all other cases. The dealers were compelled to make affidavit as to the jobber from whom they bought milk, and the Justices announced their purpose to strike at the root of the evil, the creamerymen and wholesale dealers who supply retailers with skimmed and adulterated milk, and to imprison and fine them whenever they are found guilty. A vigorous pursuit of this policy will work a transformation in the New York milk trade. With skimmed and watered milk out of the market nothing will be heard of an oversupply, and in order to meet the demands of their trade dealers will have to pay farmers better prices.

NEWS FROM TWIN LAKES

The Campers Well and Happy—Snakes Numerous and Many Killed.

Mr. Chas. A. Ketcham, one of the camping party at Twin Lakes, spent last night in town, and returned to camp, this morning. He says all the campers are well and are enjoying themselves. The weather has been so cool several nights, that the campers slept in their clothes and used all their blankets and were none to warm.

Mr. Ketcham brought with him the skins of two rattlesnakes killed by members of the party. Both are about four feet long, one having nine rattles and a button, and the other four and a button.

They have also killed several copperhead snakes of small size which are very numerous about the camp and make themselves altogether too familiar, one having been captured in one of the tents, where it was making itself at home.

The party expects to remain in camp until Sept. 3rd.

A One Sided Horse Trade.

Mr. Walling, of Mud Mills, whose horse was stolen, Tuesday night, yesterday afternoon, found in his meadow an old crow bait of a horse, with both knees sprung and one leg bandaged. Near the entrance was an old Dutch collar and a pair of traces.

Some one had evidently traded horses with him without his knowledge or consent. He suspects a man who formerly worked for him.

A VETERAN'S STRATEGY.

How Captain Joe Johnson Made Sure of a Seat When the Cars Were Crowded.

Capt. Joe Johnson attended the Orange Blossoms' reunion at Midway Park yesterday. When he got ready to go home, he was tired and not being as young as he used to be was afraid he could not get a seat in the scramble when the cars stopped where the platform is to be, and so resolved on strategy. He went up the track almost to Bauer's Park and sat down on the rail. Motorman Reed was in charge of the first car that happened along and he pounded loudly on the gong, but Captain Joe never moved. Rather than run over the man the motorman stopped his car when it was almost on top of the veteran, and Captain Joe, chuckling softly to himself, jumped to his feet, boarded the car, secured a seat and rode in comfort to Middletown.

LIKE A FAIRY TALE.

From a Veracious Correspondent.

The Snake Chasers, of Mayfield, and the Stump Jumpers, of Middletown, played ball at Harlem Park, Tuesday, before a large crowd of spectators. The Stump Jumpers showed their superior skill by the way they pounded the ball over in Dave Miller's snake meadow. The snakes over there seemed to have no terrors for Martin Sommers, as he was continually chasing the ball in that direction. One big snake wound itself around McGuire's arm so tightly that he was compelled to leave the box, when Hope, who hoped to do better than McGuire had done, was substituted in his place. But alas and alack for poor Hope! The Stump Jumpers in this inning made sixteen runs and claim that they could have stayed in until East Main is paved but they wanted to give their friends a show and so retired. The score at the end of the six innings was Stump Jumpers 36, Snake Chasers 12.

The Stump Jumpers say that the Mayfielders are all right chasing snakes but they are not in it playing ball.

In justice to some of those whose names were published in the score in last night's Press, we would say that they were not in the game.

John Barry and James McCormick, arrested on Friday, at Pond Eddy, for burglarizing the store of Samuel VanAkin at Lackawaxen, escaped from the jail at Milford, Monday night, by sawing off a bar in the window of one of the cells.

The saw, and a fish line with which it was doubtless passed to the prisoners by an accomplice, who eluded the officers by swimming the Delaware at Pond Eddy, were left behind, as were the hats and coats of the men.

IN ANCIENT GOSHEN.

Mr. Maison to Leave Goshen—Other Personal Notes—The Sad Side of an Auction.

From a Special Correspondent.

—Rev. Wm. E. Maison announced at the morning service at St. James' Church, last Sunday, that he had accepted a call to Ogden, Utah, for which place he would leave about the middle of October. Mr. Maison has had charge of St. James parish for over six years, during which time he has made many friends in Goshen, who will learn of his departure with much regret.
—Miss Florence Bacon returned on Saturday from Chicago, where she has been spending some weeks.
—Miss Ethel Hosford, of Brooklyn, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. E. L Frost at her home in this village.
—Mr. A. C. Ireland, of Fultonville, N. Y., spent last Sunday with his family at their home in Crystal Run.
—Miss Virginia Gilbert, of Jersey City, is the guest of Mrs. W. G. Murray, at her home in this village.
—When we see people returning from an auction, their arms laden with articles of the most incongruous discription, our first impression is one of amusement, but after all there is something sad in the idea of having one's household goods scattered in every direction. Never mind how old and shabby they may be they have been our companions for so many years that they seem like old friends, and it must necessarily be something of a wrench to part from them. They are only insensate tables and chairs to be sure, but about those tables have gathered many whose faces have vanished from our daily lives, and those chairs have held the forms of those dear to us. Such associations must necessarily give a certain sacredness to the homeliest belongings and might well make one shrink at the thought of their being domiciled in various houses, to be owned by those in whose eyes their only value is that they were bought as bargains. Perhaps we have not so strong a feeling about such things as our ancestors apparently had, for how carefully they cherished their possessions, and how they descended from generation to generation. What weary muscles some of our ancestresses must have had from the polishing of those mahogany tables, in which they took such pride. Sometimes, as we sit in the twilight, our fancy will people the room with the various persons who once sat about one of those old tables; from the stately dames with powdered hair, and the courtly gentlemen in knickerbockers, seriously sipping their tea and discussing matters of grave import. Somehow we always think of them as serious, down through succeeding generations to the present age. Even the heathen had their Lares and Penates that they worshipped and it is only natural that we should care in a moderate degree for our household goods.

MAUD MULLER AND TRILBY.

Maud Muller had a Trilby foot,
But she was not a Trilby.
A very different girl was she,
And so her story will be.
Sweet Maud was dressed in tattered gown,
Trilby in "altogether,"
For Trilby posed in studios
And Maud out in the weather.

Poor Maud, ashamed of her bare feet,
Her blushes tried to smother.
While Trilby first put one foot out
And then stuck out the other.
Love came to both of them one day,
Which they both had to smother,
The judge he smiled and rode away,
Billee went with his mother.

Then both these girls were hypnotized,
Poor Maudie by a farmer,
While Trilby fell beneath the spell
Of a satanic charmer.
Poor Maud she sighed, "It might have been!"
But Trilby knew it should not,
So bravely tried to let him go,
And sing although she could not.

Alas, for judge and gifted boy,
The darling little Billee!
Strangers evermore to joy
Their fate they bore quite illy.
The world, too, sighs with secret pain,
And wishes, "Will he, will he,"
The judge had married rustic Maud
And Trilby Little Billee!

CONSCIENCE MONEY.

During my residence at the Villa Medicis—from 1871 to 1874—we were constantly hearing of highway robbery, and even of downright brigandage, out on the Campagna and up in the mountains. Sometimes rumor would bring the marauders to the very gates of the city, and at last the bandits were reported to have ventured into the town itself. The report did not exaggerate the reality.

Happily none of our party fell a victim to these attempts save one, who was stopped in open day by the side of Santa Maria Maggiore, forced back to the wall and "held up" with half a dozen knives gleaming in a semicircle around his throat.

He was relieved of his watch and gave up his purse, but beyond the loss of these articles suffered no injury. The watch he subsequently recovered, and the purse contained only a few francs. Simon Backer always was a lucky dog.

There was at this time, in the mountains near Cervara, a bandit whose activity and audacity had made him a terror to the district for several months past. Emboldened by the smiles with which fortune favored him, he grew daily more daring. He had ventured into Subiaco and carried off prisoners under the walls of Tivoli. The peasants never failed to cross themselves when they spoke of Fontana. He was said to be not more than 20 at most, of a strikingly handsome presence, and to a courage that was indomitable he added the strength of a Hercules.

For nearly half a year this fellow and his band of cutthroats held possession of the Campagna. The attempts made from time to time to take him always came to nothing. Now it would be the royal and now the pontifical gendarmerie that would go after him, but the carbineers seemed never to arrive in time. There was always something to delay their departure or obstruct their march.

The Campagna is a veritable land of Goshen for a brigand who knows his business. Everywhere there are grottoes, caverns, grass grown ruins, abandoned quarries and broad belts of forest, untrodden for generations. A few villages, lost in these solitudes, are united to the outer world by a track which is unworthy the name of road and bound together by footpaths only recognizable by those accustomed to use them.

The child trotting from one to the other with a cheese for the grandmother, or returning with water from the distant fountain, would frequently fall in with the "wolf."

This "wolf" was Fontana disguised.

With some cheap trinkets, perhaps a necklace of beads or a silver bracelet, he would entice the child to chatter, wheedling out of her who sold his beasts or disposed of his crop; inquiring if this one had received the bequest expected or that other been paid the legacy left him. And how could the frightened child refuse to answer when the "wolf" suddenly transformed himself into a handsome gentleman, with soft manners and hands filled with pretty things?

In one of these villages lived a man named Beppo Guerra. It was he himself who told me this story. He filled the triple office of notary, apothecary and mayor.

At the close of the winter fairs held in Rome and the neighborhood Guerra had committed the great impudence of bringing back with him a large sum of money—several thousand francs. Fontana got wind of this.

One evening, when everybody in the village was asleep and Beppo was finishing his pipe down stairs, some shots were fired at the door. No warning had been given; no noise had been heard. Before Beppo could recover himself a ball crashed through the window and tore a long splinter from the ceiling joist, the door was burst open, and Fontana entered, followed by several members of his band.

Terrified by the noise, Mme. Guerra rushed to the room to save her husband, and the children ran to seek protection near their mother.

Unmoved by the entreaties of the wife, the ruffians leveled their pistols at the heads of the affrighted family.

"Twenty thousand francs is what we want of you," shouted Fontana. "Come, there's no time to waste. I don't want any blabbering, and I'm not going to listen to any tale pitching. Hand it over quickly. I'll give you five minutes to make up your mind."

Resistance was useless. To call for help was to seek sudden death and bring down vengeance on the heads of little ones. Beppo understood the situation exactly.

"I have not such a sum," said he coldly.

"Then give us what you have. The rest can be sent after you. We shall take you with us as security for payment, and no harm will befall you if your folks don't make fools of themselves and wake up the gentlemen in frogged coats and cock's feathers. When the last sou's paid, you'll be set free."

They rummaged the house, turning the place upside down, but found no more than the 12,000 francs Beppo had given them.

Guerra was immediately bound and gagged, a bandage was placed over his eyes, and they were going to lead him away, when his wife, throwing herself at the feet of the brigand chief, cried in accents of terror and despair:

"Agostino! Agostino!"—it was the Christian name of Fontana — "have mercy. Don't take him away. You know us well. Take the money, but leave us Beppo."

"No, no! Impossible! Go to the devil."

But the poor creature clung to him the tighter, seizing the folds of his cloak with both hands.

"Agostino!" she cried again. "You remember me. Many's the time I played with you when you were little."

"Go to the devil, I say. Make up the sum required and you shall have back your husband. In four days come alone to the spring by the marble quarry and we'll settle the account."

And in less time than it takes to wink, the brigands hurried off Beppo, leaving wife and children overwhelmed with disaster.

To make complaint and set the authorities to work was simply to put a bullet through the head of the prisoner. His wife knew this only too well. She knew also that it would be necessary to meet Fontana on the day appointed, at the place named.

She went alone—that was the condition—carrying with her every penny that she had been able to raise. Her eyes were swollen from want of sleep and reddened by much weeping.

In the vicinity of the quarry all was quiet. Everything about her spoke of peace, of tranquil days and silent nights. Only her own soul was in agitation.

Glancing upward she saw Fontana descending from above with the rapidity of a pebble detached by a pick. He came toward her with a comical air, like a fellow well pleased with himself for having just made a good stroke in a doubtful business.

"Beppo carries himself as high as the cupola of St. Peter's. We play cards together to help pass the time. Have you brought the money?"

"Not the whole of it, but surely this is enough—5,000!"

Fontana frowned under his eyebrows and answered roughly: "No; I said 20,000. Adieu!"

"Wait, wait," cried the poor woman, seeking to detain him. "I have not been able to get more in the time, but I will go at once to Orbatello, and his relatives there will give me what's lacking. The day after tomorrow I shall have it."

"Be it so, then. After tomorrow, here at this place. Thou knowest the rest."

Two days later the wife of Guerra was standing on the same spot, and Fontana, with the same comical air, was counting coins into his hat. The woman had brought with her the complement, and the bandit, having satisfied himself as to the amount, made her a low bow.

"This evening Beppo will return to his family. Allow me to wish you a last adieu."

On reaching his quarters in the mountains Fontana cut the cords which bound his prisoner to a stone of enormous size, threw the money and notes into his hat and shouted abruptly to his comrades:

"Here's the remainder. Beppo is free. Presently four of you will bandfold him and lead him as far as the stone heap beyond the quarry. From there he can find his way home. If any one does him the smallest injury, I shall know how to punish it. Remember, you are all responsible for his safety."

Then, sending the men away, he was left alone with Guerra.

"Listen to me, Beppo. I have always had a friendly feeling for you and yours. If I had only myself to consider, I would never have done this. But I have with me two or three hot headed rascals, who know that you're pretty 'easy' and heard that you had brought back a big sum from the city. It was impossible to hold them off. You don't know these fellows. I cannot always do what I would, but when an affair's been decided on I usually continue to be master. Ah! When I saw your wife—who nursed me and taught me to walk—it gave me a nasty twinge. But if I had yielded we should both have been knocked down and beaten to death where we stood.

"Pardon me, Beppo, and pray accept these few pieces — 150 francs. Take them as conscience money. Buy something for the wife and children as a souvenir of Fontana, who begs their forgiveness for the injury he has been forced to do them."

A few hours later, when the bandage was removed from his eyes, Beppo found himself at a spot distant about three kilometers from his own house.

Not a great while after this occurrence the bandit was dispersed and Fontana himself shot dead in a skirmish with the carbineers.

Such was the terror which he had inspired throughout the district that the authorities, suspecting his death would be doubted by the populace, had the corpse lashed to the back of an ass, and for three days the animal was led through the principal villages in the Campagna.

Beppo Guerra never said what he did with the 150 francs which Fontana desired to have expended in presents for madam and her children. Most probably the wish was respected. Superstition has struck her roots deep in the south. Within two months of Guerra's release Fontana was a dead man, and Beppo would scarcely dare to "cheat" the dead out of his "conscience money."—London Sun.

From LaGrippe.

How Dr. Miles' Nervine Restored One of Kentucky's Business Men to Health.

NO DISEASE has ever presented so many peculiarities as LaGrippe. No disease leaves its victims so debilitated, useless, sleepless, nerveless, as LaGrippe.

Mr. D. W. Hilton, state agent of the Mutual Life Insurance Co., of Kentucky, says: "In '89 and '90 I had two severe attacks of LaGrippe, the last one attacking my nervous system with such severity that my life was despaired of. I had not slept for more than two months except by the use of narcotics that stupefied me, but gave me no rest. I was only conscious of intense mental weakness, agonizing bodily pain and the fact that I was hourly growing weaker.

When in this condition, I commenced using Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine. In two days I began to improve and in one month's time I was cured me a to the surprise of all who knew of my condition. I have been in excellent health since and have recommended your remedies to many of my friends."

THE NEW GIRL.

She Was a Trifle Surprised by What She Heard.

A new girl came to work on a Buffalo paper recently, to "do the society." She was fresh from a Baptist seminary, but she had a longing to be of the world, worldly. Especially was she ambitious to interview actresses and know stage people. The city editor finally gave her a note of introduction to the manager of "The Pink Pig" Comic Opera company, which is now rehearsing in this city.

Miss Jones went around to the theater last Sunday morning. Dress rehearsal was in progress. The manager was glad to see her. She had a gushful, three column write up look in her eye. He gave her a seat down in front, and the rehearsal went on. It was the first time Miss Jones had ever witnessed a theatrical performance, except as one of many spectators. She was now the entire audience.

And it was so different from what she had expected! Life on the boards was evidently not all violets and rose colored discussions on art. The people on the stage were coarse. The prima donna and the leading tenor were bandying low jests, while the stage manager was impartially swearing at everybody, without distinction of sex.

Finally the manager approached. "How are you enjoying it, Miss Jones?" he asked.

"Very much indeed," she faltered, this being the first lie she had ever told.

"Well, come around behind and see my people," urged the urbane manager. "I think I may say without boasting that I have the most refined ladies in the profession."

And away they went to the women's dressing room. Such a scene the country girl had never beheld before. The scantiness of the costumes quite appalled her. And the girls didn't seem at all to mind the fact that some hands were constantly passing through the room, but went on composedly with their robing and disrobing.

"Aren't they a superior lot of ladies?" asked the grand manager. "It's seldom you see so much culture and refinement in the chorus of a comic opera company."

Miss Jones had nothing to say, but the manager didn't seem to mind that. He rattled on in laudation of his company. Presently one of the girls spoke to him, saying:

"Colonel, my costume is rather scanty. All of it doesn't seem to have arrived yet."

"Here," thought the visitor, "is the one oasis of womanliness in all this desert of vulgarity. I'm so glad that one of these poor creatures has developed a sense of shame!" so she listened.

"What's wrong, Flossie?" asked the colonel. "Your dress seems to be all there. A yard and a half of tulle and spangles, and—er—all the rest of it."

"No, 'tain't all there, colonel," returned the modest girl. "I can't find my golden girdle."—Buffalo Express.

The Wonderful Effect of Humor.

"You don't look well at all, old man," said Inkleigh to Pushpen.

"I don't wonder at it," was the reply. "I am suffering terribly with insomnia. I dread to go to bed. I not only cannot go to sleep, but when I lie awake I get blue and have the most horrible thoughts."

"That's too bad," commented Inkleigh commiseratingly. "I'll tell you what. You take this book. It is my latest lot of short, humorous stories. Just published. You just read them while you lie awake. They'll keep you from feeling blue and down hearted at any rate."

A week later Inkleigh felt himself warmly grasped by the hand. He turned and saw it was Pushpen.

"A thousand thanks, old chap," said the latter, working his friend's arm like a sugar chopper.

"What's the matter?"

"That book."

"Oh, yes. I remember. Those funny stories of mine. So they kept you from feeling blue when you could not sleep?"

"Blue!" replied Pushpen, recommencing the chopping process. "I never slept better in my life!"—New York World.

THE ORANGE BLOSSOMS.

Proceedings of the Business Session—Officers Elected—Next Year's Meeting to be Held at Highland Mills.

The business meeting of the 124th Regiment Association at Midway Park, yesterday afternoon, was called to order by the Vice-President, Major C. B. Wood, of this city.

After the roll was called, Capt. Lewis S. Wisner made a short address, after which he offered the following resolutions on the death of the late Hon. M. D. Stivers, which were unanimously adopted:

Whereas, We are again assembled to celebrate the day that marks another year gone into the vista of the past; our hearts are saddened by the transfer of comrades and friends to the camping ground beyond the great divide; among the transfers which we mourn, to-day, none touch the tenderly vibrating cords of affection with more earnest strength than does that of the Honorable Moses Dunning Stivers, who was ever and always a true friend of the nation's veteran defenders, and who, by acts of kindness to many of our comrades, had especially endeared himself to the Orange Blossoms. Therefore, be it

Resolved, That we hereby express our sincere sorrow that he was so early summoned; our fervent joy in the belief that, although the summons was unexpected and the transfer swift, this faithful friend was not found unprepared. That a copy of these resolutions, signed by the President and Secretary of the Society, be given to the bereaved family and that the same be published in the Middletown papers.

The matter of the appointment of a committee to arrange for the visit of the Association to Gettysburgh, in 1896, was brought up and discussed. Major Bradley and Col. Weygant spoke in favor of making the visit in 1897, on account of the political excitement of a Presidential campaign, next year.

It was finally voted that the President should appoint a committee to arrange for the trip in 1897.

Hon. Louis F. Goodsell extended an invitation to the Association to hold its next re-union at Highland Mills.

Lieut. Lawson, of Newburgh, named Glenwood Park, near that city, and John R. Hayes, of Walden, wanted the reunion held in that village.

Major Bradley said that while he would like to see the reunion at Walden, Highland Mills was entitled to it, because the Association had voted to go there once, but did not do so.

It was voted to hold the next reunion at Highland Mills.

Col. Weygant reported that he had intended to bring the old battle flag with him from Newburgh, but it was in such condition that it could not be moved.

On motion, the President was authorized to appoint a committee of one from each company to procure a new flag and have a list of all the battles in which the regiment participated, inscribed upon it.

The following officers were elected for the ensuing year:

President—Thos. Taft, of Cornwall.

Vice-President—Edward Ginner, of Highland Mills.

Secretary—H. R. Mayette, of Brooklyn.

Treasurer—Col. C. H. Weygant, of Newburgh.

All the old trustees were re-elected.

Addresses were delivered by Gen. Ward, Col. Weygant, Major Benedict, Capt. Bradley and other members of the association and by Col. John A. Helvin, an ex-confederate soldier, who was an honored guest of the Orange Blossoms.

The following members answered to roll call:

ONION CULTURE ON GREYCOURT MEADOWS.

Crops Small as Compared With Those of Years Ago—Why Not Try Celery and Asparagus?

Never again will be gathered such crops of onions from Chester—Greycourt meadows as they yielded some fifteen or twenty years ago, when six or seven hundred bushels to the acre was the annual result. A very good season for these meadows, nowadays, rewards the grower with scarcely more than a livelihood, whereas when they were in their prime in the "tearful bulb" the returns had from a few acres were almost sufficient to support a "coach and four." Not only has the product per acre been more than cut in two since then, but prices also have fallen in the same proportion.

In spite of all this, however, the Chester-Greycourt meadow farmers stick to onion raising as tenaciously as one might expect them do were it a finable offence to devote the soil to any other end. To be sure, they do a little diversifying with potatoes and corn and an occasional cabbage, but all to small profit, and yet it would seem fortunes await them through devoting these rich bottoms to celery and asparagus, for either of which there is unlimited demand at most remunerative prices. At all events, as is well known, just such black-dirt lands as these are being made to yield fortunes in these crops, in the former especially, in other parts of this State and in other states.

ERIE REORGANIZATION.

Decree of Sale Signed by Judge Lacombe, of the United States Circuit Court.

One of the first results of J. Pierpont Morgan's return to Wall street, yesterday, was the arrangement for the publication of the plan of reorganization of the New York, Lake Erie and Western Railroad early next week.

Judge Lacombe, of the United States Circuit Court, issued an order, yesterday, for the sale of the property under foreclosure. It is the intention to push the reorganization to early completion.

It is understood that the underwriting syndicate has already been made up. It consists largely of foreigners.

AN OUTSIDE VIEW.

The Streets Leading Into Middletown In Disgraceful Condition.

From the Orange County Farmer.

The Middletown aldermen met the other night and discussed streets and everything but the repairs to the thoroughfares leading out of town. Of course they want farmers to come in—what would Middletown do without its admirable farm environments?—but they care not to smooth the way for their entrance. I is simply disgraceful to leave streets in the condition some of the leading highways in that city are in

THE MURDER AT SUMMITVILLE.

A Brother of James McComb Corrects Some Misstatements—The Prisoner Will Claim That The Shooting Was In Self-defence—A Man Who Approves of the Killing.

From Our Wurtsboro Correspondent.

I have received a call from Mr. William McComb, of Phillipsport, who wishes me to correct some incorrect reports that have crept into print concerning his brother, James McComb, of Summitville, in connection with his shooting the beer trainers last week.

That James shot and killed Jean Courace Degeith there is no doubt, he having admitted it and given himself up at once. He might have kept to himself the secret of his act and his identity would have been very doubtful since nobody heard the shooting but the parties interested. Neither was he seen by anybody, as it was after dark. Would a man premediating cold-blooded murder thus give himself up?

The plea that will be given before the grand jury will be that of self-defense. As is well known, McComb held a close mouth at the inquest. His brother is probably the only man that he confided anything to.

It has been reported that he was a hard drinking man. In reply to this his brother wished it stated that he has worked hard, raised and supported his entire family, and never received a cent's help from the town.

Concerning the report that he was a disagreeable man, his brother cites the fact that for sixteen years of his life he lived agreeably with one family in Orange county. His age, we might add, is about thirty-six years.

Another report, which is to be denied, is that he was once in a stabbing affair. His brother asserts that there is absolutely no truth in this report.

While many people think nothing too severe for him, there are many who think he did perfectly right. Following is a letter sent to McComb, which, while quite emphatic in sentiment, (and written by a prominent man in his vicinity but whose name we withheld,) voices the opinion of many persons:

NEVERSINE, N. Y., Aug. 15, 1895.

Mr. James McComb, Summitville, N. Y.

DEAR SIR: I have just been reading the paper in regard to your shooting affair. I wish you had laid them all out. The d—— scoundrels are prowling about the country, too lazy to work and earn an honest living. I have had a little experience with bear theives a few years ago, so I know how to sympathise with you. The prevailing opinion here is that you have done exactly right and that it would have been better if the bears and the rest of the men had been shot. I wish you had cleaned them all out, they are nothing but a nuisance and ought to be cleaned out. You served them just right. If we all had the sand you had the bear game would soon play out. Hoping and wishing you will come out all right, I remain, yours respectfully.
